

Immersion Enlistment Agreement

My signature below acknowledges the following:

- WBC is not responsible for any personal, professional, logistical, creative, or any other conflict, which interferes with my attendance, productivity, or course work. There are many ways to receive assistance during the course and it is my responsibility to take advantage of them. I am agreeing to enlist in Writers Boot Camp (WBC) with a commitment of at least twenty hours per week in addition to the time required for course meetings. This includes effective management of my lifestyle and creative focus during the course.

- The cost of the Immersion Program includes the Immersion Panel, 3-4 hours of class time/creative support daily (Mon-Fri), two comprehensive script evaluations, daytime use of WBC Bivuoac (shared workspace), catered dinner on the evening of the Panel Event as well as on Thursday evening, ongoing access to the Alumni Center website resource, and Priority Eligibility for Professional or Online Membership. All benefits are subject to current Member guidelines.

- Early Enlistment Deadline information: to qualify for the Early Enlistment Incentive, Enlistment Agreements must be received by the Los Angeles office by the indicated deadline. There will be no exceptions to this policy.

- Airfare, lodging, transportation, and meals (other than those indicated above) are not included in the course fee, and are the sole responsibility of the writer enrolling in the session.

- There are no deferments or refunds. I am obligated to fulfill all obligations for the course regardless of my productivity and attendance. I acknowledge that WBC does not pro-rate any fees for any course meetings missed. If I miss a course meeting for any reason, it is my responsibility to contact my instructor ASAP for a brief review. If I am unable to reach my instructor, it is my responsibility to notify the L.A. office for assistance in doing so.

- Failure to attend the Sunday session of the Immersion Program results in automatic forfeiture of tuition. Only under the discretion of WBC's Los Angeles office may absenteeism be considered postponement when space is available, to be used within 90 days of the original session. In the rare case of exception, the postponement fee is $250.

- There are no script deadline or conference extensions. The second Deadline will be fixed 30 calendar days from the date of the first script conference. Missed deadlines constitute forfeiture of privileges and services. Script conferences will normally be held 2-3 weeks following script deadlines. Due to the nature of early drafts, I understand that, while striving to complete my script, it is to my benefit to hand in whatever I have completed at the time of my session deadline.

- WBC staff and instructors pledge confidentiality in a safe, creative environment. All project discussion belongs to the writer of that project. I can protect my material by registering and copyrighting my script and written materials prior to handing them in. I agree to maintain the confidentiality of ideas communicated and developed by other writers in the course meetings. I will not record sessions and/or circulate or copy course materials without the prior written consent of WBC.

- WBC instructors may be subject to change. All WBC instructors are trained to support me individually. In the interest of creative support, course meetings or conferences may be rescheduled or combined. Acceptance into and my agreement to take this course are non-transferable.

- Exceptions to these policies are subject to the sole discretion and advance approval of WBC's Los Angeles office.
